

BENEFITS OF AFFILIATION TO AFL NSW/ ACT

1. Affiliation Benefits to Leagues

Item	Description
Sport TG subscription	The FootyWeb registration and competition management system is provided free to all affiliated leagues and provides registration terms and conditions for players, administrators and volunteers, as well as the ability to transfer players from and to other leagues.
League website	League websites are provided free to all affiliated leagues, including provision of competition fixtures, contact information, news, resources etc.
National Insurance Program	The national risk protection program, currently operated through JLT Insurance, provides public liability, club management insurance and personal injury cover (players, coaches, trainers, volunteers etc). AFL NSW/ ACT provides silver cover above the national bronze level.
Facilities Funding	Guidance and support from AFL NSW/ACT to access facility funding to improve facilities.
Grant Funding and Contra Supplies	Access to ad-hoc grant funding such as under the Female Football Grants Scheme, Representative Football etc. Access to contra supplies of apparel, footballs and equipment.
Online Fixture Software	Access for free to Optimal Planning Solutions Online Fixturing Software which is utilised by major leagues around the world including the AFL competition.
AFL National Player Transfer Regulations	Access to the appeals process related to the national player transfer regulations.
Umpire Support	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pathway opportunities for identified umpires • Access to the National Umpire Accreditation Scheme • Umpire Coach Accreditation • Umpire Coach Professional Development in the form of seminars, workshops etc. • Access to umpire coaching resources such as training plans, vision, coaching tools etc. • Laws of the Game advice • Group planning assistance • Recruitment/retention strategies

List of Affiliation Benefits

VOTY Recognition Program	VOTY Program allocated $100 per club and $200 per league in vouchers for volunteer recognition and provides the opportunity to win a Grand Final package.
Education	Education is provided to the league annually regarding various matters e.g. FootyWeb, CCIP, concussion management, volunteer support, integrity etc. Additional ad hoc education is provided on request. AFL Education also provides full day training and education to clubs – see: http://www.afl.com.au/afl/education. AFL NSW/ ACT also conduct regular education workshops for Community Football staff.
AFL NSW/ACT Regulations and Policies	Advice and guidance on regulatory matters including interpretation and enforcement of national and state regulations and policies. Assistance with the drafting of football related policies, rules and associated documentation.
Quality League Management Framework	QLMF provides each league with an independent assessment and evaluation against predetermined criteria relevant to the administration of a league. Leagues who meet the performance threshold receive a set of on-field playing uniforms well as grant funding of circa $1,000.
Representative Football	Ability to for leagues play in sanctioned Representative Football matches. AFL NSW/ ACT also provides funding to leagues for Representative Football.
Media Management	Centralised media and marketing support with local media and across state campaigns. Public relations assistance as required.
AFL Logo and IP	Licence to use the AFL logo on playing jumpers and shorts and can use the logo on approved advertising material.
Human Resources	Management of relevant Community Football staff including HR management, payroll, payroll tax, OH&S obligations etc.

2. Affiliation Benefits to Clubs

Item	Description
Sport TG subscription	The FootyWeb registration and competition management system is provided free to all affiliated clubs and provides registration terms and conditions for players, administrators and volunteers, as well as the ability to transfer players from and to other leagues.
Club website	Club websites are provided free to all affiliated clubs, including provision of competition fixtures, contact information, news, resources etc.
National Insurance Program	The national risk protection program, currently operated through JLT Insurance, provides public liability, club management insurance and personal injury cover (players, coaches, trainers, volunteers etc). AFL NSW/ ACT provides silver cover above the national bronze level.
AFL National Player Transfer Regulations	Access to the appeals process related to the national player transfer regulations.
Facilities Funding	Guidance and support from AFL NSW/ACT to access facility funding to improve their club facilities.
Grant Funding and Contra Supplies	Access to ad-hoc grant funding such as under the Female Football Grants Scheme, Representative Football etc. Access to contra supplies of apparel, footballs and equipment.
Talented Player Pathways	Access to talented player pathways (e.g. Sydney Swans and GWS Giants academies).
Accreditation Programs	Access to AFL NSW/ACT accreditation programs such as coaching courses, umpire courses etc.
AFL NSW/ACT Regulations and Policies	Advice and guidance on regulatory matters including interpretation and enforcement of national and state regulations and policies. Assistance with the drafting of football related policies, rules and associated documentation.
Club Development	Support and access to volunteer training and club development. Access and support via AFL NSW/ ACT staff including Development Managers.

List of Affiliation Benefits

Education	Education is provided to the league annually regarding various matters e.g. FootyWeb, CCIP, concussion management, volunteer support, integrity etc. Additional ad hoc education is provided on request. AFL Education also provides full day training and education to clubs – see: http://www.afl.com.au/afl/education.
AFL Logo and IP	Licence to use the AFL logo on playing jumpers and shorts and can use the logo on approved advertising material.
NAB Introducer	Access to revenue from NAB through the NAB Introducer Program.